Mathematical

I enjoy working with numbers & science

- Find out government and opposition numbers in the houses of parliament
- Make a flow chart of how an election works
- Classify different political parties in Australia in a Venn diagram
- Conduct a PMI on the establishment of Federation
- Create a graph of the number of representatives from each state in parliament
- Devise a new law that needs to go through parliament

Visual

I enjoy painting drawing & visualising

- Make a timeline of Australian Prime Ministers
- Draw seating plans of the Senate and the House Of Representatives
- Illustrate and display a variety of typical Australian political party logos
- Compare the upper and lower houses
- Invent a fictional Australian Prime Minister – give a birthplace, work history and character (draw)
- Create a pamphlet for a new political party

Kinaesthetic

I enjoy doing hands-on activities

- Create a menu for a Parliamentary banquet
- Make a collage using pictures of past Australian Prime Ministers
- Construct a model of Parliament House in Canberra
- Arrange a display of items that would be found in parliament house
- Design an invitation to a Parliamentary banquet
- Make an 'Election' board game

Musical

I enjoy making & listening to music

- Learn some past jingles of political parties
- Why do political parties have jingles?
- Share your favourite jingles, political or otherwise
- What makes different jingles more effective than others?
- Create a jingle for your new political party
- Ask for feedback on what others thought about your jingle

Interpersonal

I enjoy working with others

- Write an exposition to recommend your political party to others
- Create a news broadcast on the possible closure of the Pambula Hospital
- Work with a family member to outline the policies of your new political party
- Survey family and friends about the possible closure of the Pambula Hospital
- Devise a cartoon strip telling the story of Federation
- Propose a solution for saving services at Pambula Hospital

Intrapersonal

I enjoy working by myself

- Describe how you’d feel if you were the prime minister of Australia
- Describe your understanding of how and why Australian politics is important
- Explain how you feel about living in a democracy
- Design a survey which ranks the importance of different political funding
- Give your views on the beginnings of politics and why it came about
- Assess media images of Australian political parties - which images do you value most/least?
